MISCELLANY: Cameron can look forward to a cultural festival, yet unnamed, involving hundreds of people by the time initial committees are named, planned and expanded for a June 13, 1970 date.

It is an outgrowth of ideas of cultural development within the Library Friends, auxiliary to the Cameron Public Library, which for three years, going for a fourth, has sponsored monthly and quarterly cultural activities in music, lecture, art and science.

Outline work on the effort has been conducted this summer by outgoing Friends president, Mrs. Perry Holder, and former library board member Miss Mildred Thornton.

Additional people are being contacted for parade, entertainment, ethnic dance and music and pilgrimage parts in the festival. Cameron Chamber tourist committee will be a liaison group and individuals throughout the community and the county are committing to chairmanships through these early planning stages.

School boards of both Cameron and Temple are finding that dress lengths created by the style industry are compelling the raising of minimum skirt lengths in both schools.

Manufactured dresses, on the larger average, create a problem for teen girls' being able to comply with the former minimum lengths. If they were required to make dresses to conform with previous standards, it would be something like public schools requiring a uniform.

That's the story on styles.

Judge O. B. Harden reports that county commissioners will consider the new county retirement program in a budget hearing in about two weeks. A public notice cites time, place and basic subject material in this edition.

Airport tarmac paving work is complete while workmen this week were extending a waterline across the runway at the north end. Repair work is to be finished later in this week as workmen reconnect airport light lines and repair the crossing made by the ditching operation.

Proximity of the airport to the industrial park in Northwest Cameron is quite a transportation coup for industrialists looking at Cameron.

There is no question it will continue to influence industry's decision to locate here, as it is these recent weeks.

DALLAS TIMES - HERALD, August 17—In between a news release from Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, which raged from a harangue against poachers in sub-marines to an East Texas hunting dog apologetic, and one from San Antonio Rep. Jake Johnson, who dubbed the land commissioner "Huckleberry Sadler" and talked of a "Jerry & The Pirates" comic strip, there appeared an unimpassioned offering from a freshman legislator.

"Bearing the strikeovers and penciled in corrections of a home-made effort, the news release proclaimed simply that Dan Kubiak, the House member from Rockdale, Tex., wanted somebody in state government to do something—anything—to stop this nonsense."

"Kubiak called on what he termed 'four leaders in the State of Texas,' whom he named as the governor, attorney general, lieutenant governor and House speaker, to step from the sidelines and get involved."

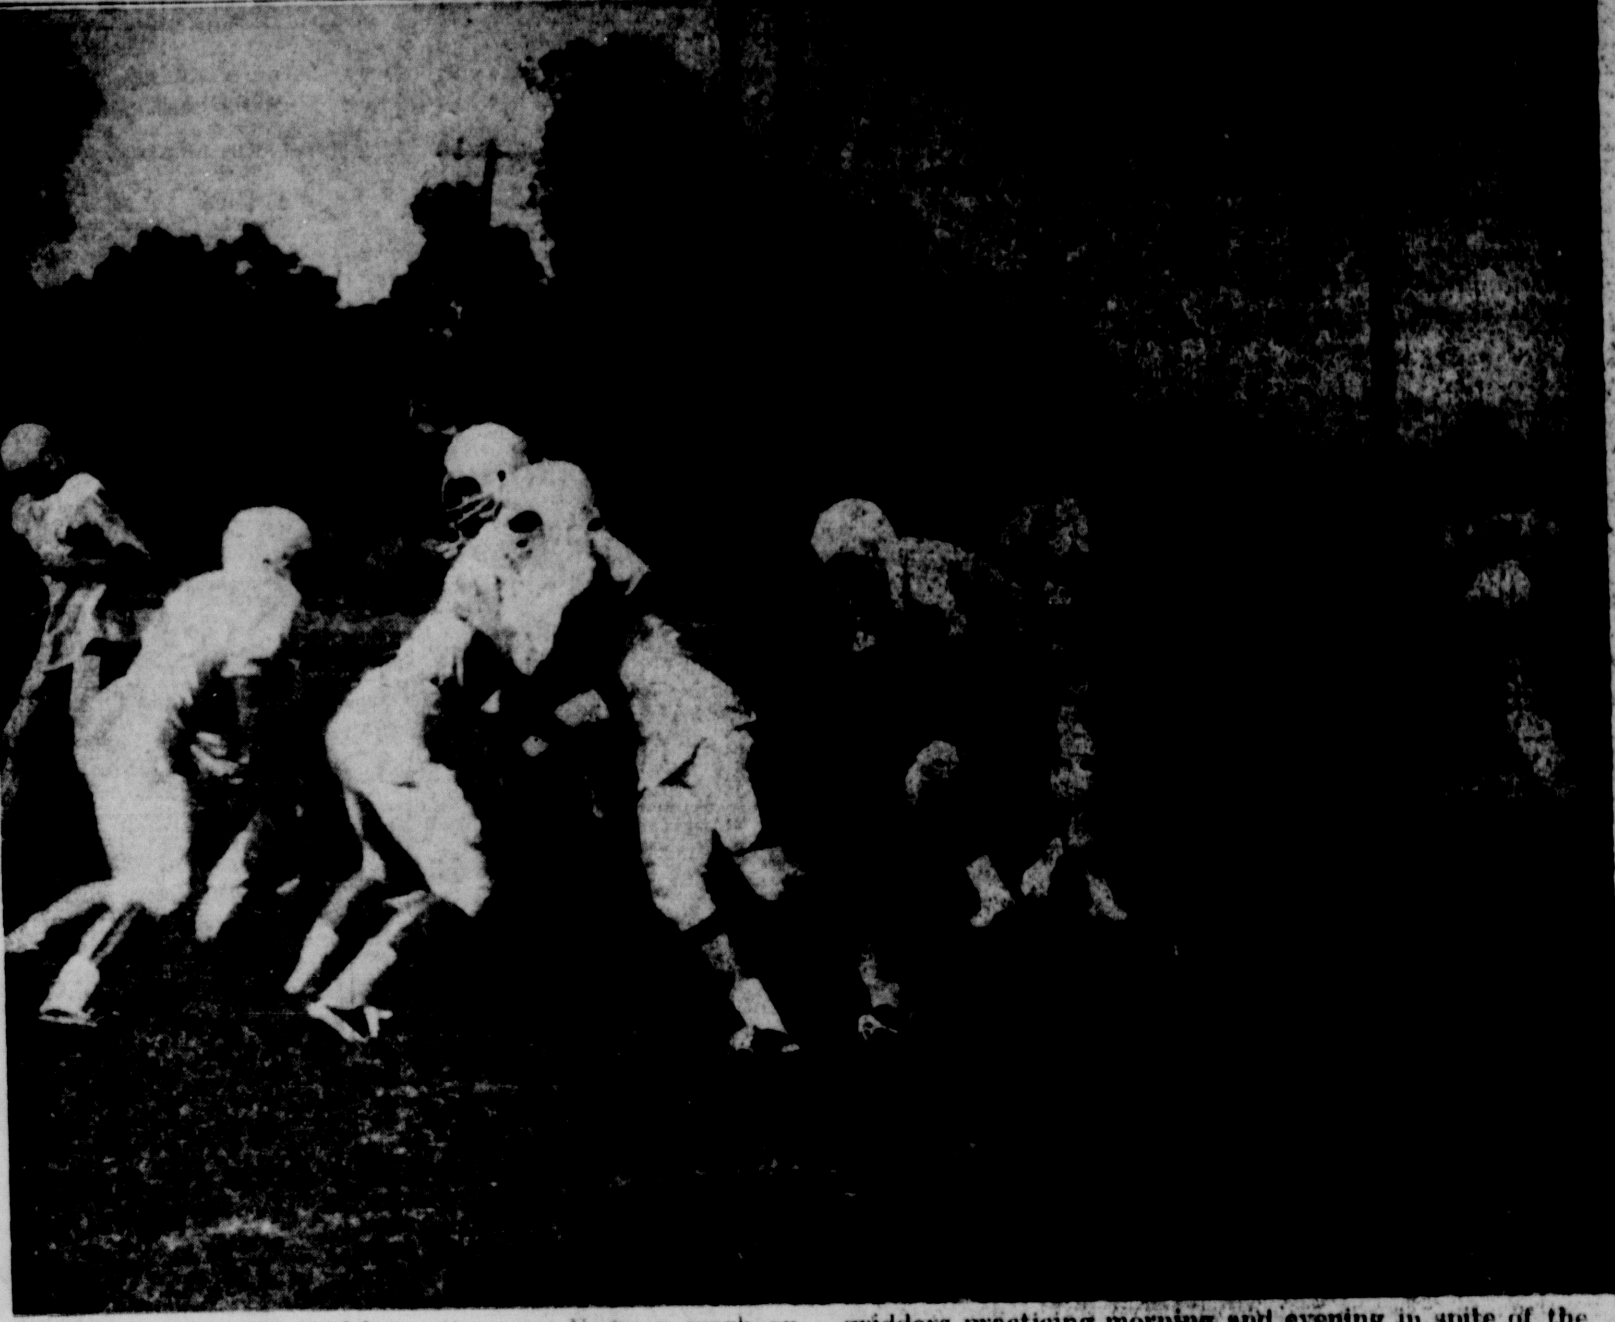

"The four," Kubiak said, should "take immediate steps to ascertain all of the facts of the 'sunken Spanish treasure ships' near Padre Island."

"Then the clincher: 'This is a serious matter and has reached ludicrous proportions. The leaders of this state must provide the leadership and take necessary action on behalf of the people of this state.'"

Writer Ernest Stromberger's column, of which this is only a part, headlined Kubiak's appeal "A Voice in the Wilderness."

Such "hands off" policy in a political controversy is nothing new. But it inevitably puts public officials in disrepute when the harangues and headlines continue without substantive conclusion. Maybe Kubiak's question will surface some of the Texas Land Commission's part in this mystery of sunken treasure.

FIRST SIGN OF FALL — Cameron Yoemen work on a play under the watchful eye of Headcoach Hal Stanislav. "Two-a-days" started Monday on Yoe Field with gridders practicing morning and evening in spite of the heat. Spectator interest is shown by small boys in the morning and teenage girls at night.

Registration Set For New Students

All students who are new to the Cameron Public School System, and who will be in grades 2, 3, 4, or 5, may register for the coming school year beginning Monday, August 25, in the principal's office at Ada Henderson School.

Arnett Zehlske, principal of Ben Milam and Ada Henderson Schools, said all new pupils entering Cameron schools in grades 2 through 5 must have a certificate of smallpox vaccination within the last five years or be vaccinated.

Enrollment on the first day of school will be delayed unless the new student has been registered prior to September 2.

No pre-registration is being held for junior high school students (grades 6, 7, and 8). Don Wiggins, Cameron Junior High principal, said all students will register on September 2, the first day of school.

High school students have until August 29 to register for classes and pick up schedules.

First graders registered on Tuesday, August 19.

COUNTY BUDGET HEARING

Milam County Commissioners' Court will hold a public hearing on the County budget for 1970, Friday, August 29 from 9 until 10 a.m. in the Commissioners' Courtroom.

Welfare payments on September 1 will reflect voter approval to lift limits on state assistance for about 1,600 aged, blind, disabled or dependent in Milam County.

The increases were approved in a special constitutional amendment ballot August 5.

Also approved for a September 1 start is a new program to halt starvation and malnutrition through medical services and additional food stuffs.

Maximum payments in the old age assistance program will be increased from $110 to $125 a month. Roger Kaiser, Welfare Dept. worker in Cameron said 1,117 in Milam County receive assistance under this program.

Aid to the disabled, affecting 85 in Milam County, will be raised from $84 to $109 a month and aid to the blind for 33 in the county will increase from $96 to $119 a month.

Aid for dependent children (AFDC) will show about a 30 percent increase over the average grant at the first of 1968. Assistance for dependent children will be granted on a basis of 75 percent of the budgeted family needs as determined by welfare guide-

Two Meetings Held...

Trustees Hear Citizens

Cameron School Board members had to stretch Thursday night's meeting into two sessions when a full agenda combined with a large delegation proved too much for one night.

A group came to the meeting to protest School Board action changing the name of O. J. Thomas School to Cameron Junior High. School to Cameron Junior High, former O.J. principal Albert Whiteside requested a hearing, and local merchants wanted to discuss a previous Board ruling on dress lengths.

When the meeting was called to order Board members agreed to meet again on Friday night to hear the merchants, but lights still burned late in the Ben Milam office Thursday night.

Spokesmen for the group of 16 objecting to changing the school name asked why O. J. Thomas School had been renamed Cameron Junior High.

School Board president Coleman Duncum replied since the Cameron schools will be fully integrated this fall the Board felt it was the "best move" for the children and the community.

Objections were voiced because the names of Ada Henderson and Ben Milam Schools had not been changed.

Duncum said the Board felt that changing the name of O.J. would be best for the community as a whole and help remove any feeling most of the school district had for attending a former Negro school. Julius Whiteside, speaking for the group, said there was "nothing wrong with you all living with O. J. Thomas as we live with Ada Henderson and Ben Milam. We'd like to be recognized in some manner."

Duncum said the School Board was concerned with children, not adults, and that there would be equal education under the Cameron school system. He told the group that the Board would take the matter under advisement.

Albert Whiteside told the Board he wanted to find out why he was

Open House Plans, Bus Pickups Told For Junior High

An open house at Cameron Junior High School will be held Thursday, August 28 from 6 to 8 p.m., according to Don Wiggins, principal.

Supt. D. R. Dodson also announced that bus schedules have been arranged to help transport students to the junior high school, and also to the elementary and high schools.

The open house will be open to the public and school officials said everyone is urged to attend. Teachers will show classrooms and other facilities.

Eleven buses will run each day, Supt. Dodson said. Five buses will unload students first at the junior high school and reload with any students who need a ride to the other schools. Six buses will unload first at Ben Milam and reload with students going to junior high. The buses will reload each morning at 7:45.

Supt. Dodson said two bus drivers are still needed, also a high school biology teacher, following the induction of James Weiler into the Armed Forces.

Prices of lunches at Ben Milam will be 30 cents and for grades 3 through 12, 35 cents. Lunch hour schedules will be announced next week.

Weather Notes

BLOODMOBILE VISIT CALLS FOR 71 PINTS

The Central Texas Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at Methodist Fellowship Hall in Cameron on Tuesday, August 26 from 1 until 7 p.m.

A new feature will be added to Tuesday's visit with three door prizes being given to donors after Bloodmobile hours. The prizes are donated by Dusek's, New Cameron, and Schiller pharmacies.

A goal of 71 units of blood is set for the Cameron visit. The Red Cross Blood Center at Waco reports a serious shortage of blood following summer accidents and elective surgery, always a drain on supplies.

Sister Aloysius, local blood program chairman, said more donors are expected Tuesday since the age limit for giving blood has been raised from 61 to 66. Even persons 66 years of age and over may donate if they obtain the written consent of their physician on the day of the donation.

Any person in good health between the ages of 18 and 66 may donate blood. Young people under 21 must have their parents' consent. It takes about ten minutes to give a pint of blood, plus a short time for the simple physical examination and answering a few questions.

Pastures Burn; Fire Threatens Homes In Sharp

Tinder-dry pastures and grass were ignited in the Jones Prairie, Sharp and Marlow communities as drought conditions continue in most of Milam County.

Lightning struck a power line in Sharp on Thursday about 4:30 p.m. and started a fire which threatened five homes in that community.

George Triggs of Sharp, said, the fire "came right up under the houses" and the only thing that saved them was a sudden downpour of rain accompanied by a shift in the wind direction.

Volunteer firemen from Cameron fought the blaze along with residents, using "anything at hand."

Triggs said, a grassfire at Marlow burned about six acres on Monday afternoon at the Morris Coward place. Some pasture burned on the Sidney Youngblood place and the Curtis Barron home was threatened for a short time.

Cause of that fire and one at Jones Prairie last Wednesday is unknown, according to Cameron Fire Department. The Jones Prairie fire burned about 1000 acres of grass and four unoccupied tenant houses on the Sneed ranch.

Units from Cameron, Calvert and Hearn fire departments fought the blaze for three hours before it was brought under control.

MILANO TRUSTEES MEET

The Milam School Board will meet Thursday, August 21 (today) at 8 p.m. in the superintendent's office. The agenda includes school budget and opening of bids on gasoline, groceries, and other items for the 1969-70 year.

Federal Funds Continue...

A $704,505 budget, not including federal sources, was approved by the board of Cameron Independent School District for 1969-70.

Title I funds totaling $114,000 will be added to the budget. Supt. D. R. Dodson said, also small additional sums for Titles II through V which have not been announced. The Title I funds are down 10 percent from those of last year.

Estimated revenues for the new school year cite local taxes at $168,488 and $18,720 in debt service tax, for a total of $187,208.

County sources will yield $1,100. State sources will be: per capita apportionment, $169,250; foundation fund salary and operation $230,700; foundation fund incentive aid, $18,800; supplemental salary aid, $3,500; foundation fund transportation, $30,000. Total state sources, $520,509.

Total expenses have been apportioned to balance with the income budget.

Armed Robbery Charge Upheld

Jessie Ellison, 34, of Temple, was sentenced to 50 years by District Judge W. C. Wallace Wednesday morning following his conviction by a Milam District court jury of the armed robbery of a Falls County liquor store.

The all-male jury found Ellison guilty of armed robbery by assault with a deadly weapon after deliberating only 19 minutes at the Tuesday trial in Milam Courthouse.

Ellison was charged with the robbery of the Barclay Liquor store in Falls County on February 18, 1968.

A March, 1968, conviction in Falls County, sentenced Ellison to the electric chair, was overturned by a U. S. Supreme Court decision. This decision related to the exclusion of persons from the jury who opposed the death sentence.

Retrial was moved to Milam

County on a change of venue from Falls County. A motion for another change of venue was expected Monday by Ellison's defense attorneys but no motion was filed. The case began 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Milam County jury members were: E. L. Kemble, foreman; Stanley Glines, Leroy Lafters, G. H. Tucker, B. V. Hodge, James E. Pearson, Louis Wootell, Jr., Harold Blair, Martin Jenke, Edward P. Young, Jr., N. O. Smith, and Allen Doss.

Defense attorneys included Don Humble and Ed Magee of Cameron. Prosecution for the state was led by Falls County Dist. Atty. Tom Bartlett, assisted by Milam Dist. Atty. John Henderson, Jr.

Principal witnesses for the state were the liquor store clerk and law enforcement officials who took part in the robbery investigation. The liquor store clerk testified that the robber threatened her with a knife, and forced her, blindfolded and with whetted hands, to go with him in a station wagon after he robbed the store.

Law enforcement officials told of finding the station wagon with Ellison and the wounded clerk at the Temple dumpground. Other lawmen told of finding money, checks, a coat, knife, and wrist watch in the vehicle when it was searched at the Temple police station. Ellison's attorney called no witnesses and argued that the state had not proved a motive for this robbery and had not positively identified checks presented as evidence.

Defense also argued that the woman clerk was confused on identification of the robber.

Defense attorneys and Ellison elected to have sentence set by Judge Wallace.

Ellison is also under indictment in Bell County for the alleged rape of the woman liquor store clerk.

Ellison's attorneys have ten days to file an appeal. Trial date for the Bell County indictment of Ellison has not been set and he remains in Milam County Jail.

New Wildcat Oil Well Scheduled For Milano Area

This Milano area of Milam County had a new wildcat scheduled last week which will be drilled by Byron Rose, a Houston independent operator. It will be his No. 1 Ray Woods.

Location of the Ray Woods is on a 160 acre lease in B. F. Swap Survey about three and one-half miles east of Milano. It will be a Glen Rose - Sligo test. Permit depth is 3,500 feet.

The new wildcat, confirms a rumor reported in mid-June that more drilling activity was expected for the Milano area in the near future.

Rose's wildcat will not be the first test drilled on the Woods acreage; the Alps No. 1 Ray Woods, a shallow wildcat, was drilled there about ten years ago. The new test is located about one-half mile west of the Clark Oil & Refining Company's No. A-1 T. Jordan, which was scheduled by that company in March. It also is near a wildcat drilled by a Houston operator, Herman Page, at his No. 1 Seaclock in 1967, which was a dry hole.

The Rose No. 1 Ray Woods is believed to be the first wildcat to test the Glen Rose - Sligo formation in that area. All other wildcats drilled had the Edwards Lime as their objective, or were attempting to find an extension of the basal Wilcox, which produces in the North Milbur Field some six miles to the southwest.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

WASHINGTON, D. C. The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State:

We are a student committee that have researched the skyjacking problem in the United States. Some tentative ideas for reform are: free transportation from Miami to Cuba for anyone willing to meet two specific requirements, 1) forfeiture of American passport, 2) forfeiture of American citizenship; transportation would be subsidized by the U.S. Government and all airlines; the installation of a metal-detecting device at each boarding gate at air terminals.

P.P. Appleton, Wis.
Dear P.P.:
Your suggestion that the government provide free transportation to Cuba for persons who wished to go there provided that they forfeit their passports and U. S. citizenship resembles a proposal the U.S. Government made to the Cubans some time ago, although no forfeitures were involved. It was necessary to seek Cuban agreement to the plan because the Cuban government would have to consent to the entry into Cuba of the persons involved. We regret to report that, to date, the Cubans have not agreed to the proposal.

As to your proposal that metal-detecting devices be set up in certain airports, we are informed that the Federal Aviation Administration recently has installed devices of this nature in various airports in the country.

Continental Shelf
I am working on a term paper concerning our nation's sovereignty on the continental shelf and the ocean bed. I would appreciate your help on available source materials.

C.T. Miami, Fla.

There is a terrific amount of information available on the continental shelf. Through 1965 the best source is probably the "Digest of International Law" (Marjorie M. Whiteman, Ed.), Vol. IV, pages 740-932. Recent materials include Henkin's "Law for the Sea's Natural Resources," December, 1967; "Natural Resources Lawyer," Vol. 1, and "Exploring the Ocean, 1966." These should be available at your nearest university law library, which should have other materials as well.

Customs
Action Line is an Oakland Tribune column that assists readers with their problems. Some time ago an Action Line reader complained that he sent his aunt in South America a box of old clothing and she was told by Argentine customs officials in Buenos Aires that she would have to pay $60 in duty before she could pick it up at the post office. Now a reader writes that he sent a missionary in Peru a box of much-needed printed matter and the missionary was informed he would have to pay $40 in customs. Naturally, he could not and had to send the material back.

Is our Department of State aware of these activities? They may be "internal" in nature but it would seem they do nothing to enhance the Alliance for Progress.

C.P. Oakland, Calif.
Dear C.P.:
As you know, Argentina and Peru as well as other countries are sovereign in their laws and customs regulations are imposed as a protection to their domestic industries.

Potential Donors Ask Questions

Next Tuesday the Central Texas Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Cameron from 1 to 7 p.m. at Methodist Fellowship Hall. Many people hesitate to be blood donors. Some people are hesitant about becoming blood donors, because they are not sure exactly what goes on at the donor center. The Red Cross has prepared a list of some of the questions asked most frequently.

I don't like needles. Doesn't it hurt?
There may be a stinging sensation for a moment, but that's all. Take long?
Less than 10 minutes for the donation.
Is that all?

Not quite—you'll be asked some questions about your health and will have your temperature, blood pressure, and hemoglobin checked for your benefit as well as the recipient's.

Nobody I know needs blood. Why should I give?
Demand for blood is increasing—6 million units a year are needed throughout the country. Someday your own life may depend on receiving blood. Help others now and they'll help you later if you need it.

Does the patient pay for the blood I donate?
Nothing is charged for Red Cross blood itself, but the patient may be asked to pay the hospital's share of collection and laboratory costs.

Will donating weaken me?

The body makes new blood constantly and will replace the volume you've given within a few hours. Most donors feel no difference and go about their normal activities. In fact, many donors who give regularly say they feel better after wards.

What about my age?

Those between 18 and 66 are eligible. Minors need parental consent except those that are married or on active duty with the military or those who are self-supporting and living away from home.

How often can I give?

About every 8 weeks, not more than 5 times annually. And that reminds me—when are you giving blood?

Westbrook Cited For Service On Draft Board

E. C. Westbrook, Jr., of Milano, has received a certificate of appreciation from President Nixon. The Presidential citation was awarded for his service as a member on the draft board serving Milano County.

Westbrook has served five years, without monetary compensation, as a public service.

Lynelle D. Barnes, Jr., chairman of the board, representing the President at the request of Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, presented the certificate.

The brief ceremony was held in the local board office, 102 North Houston Street, Cameron, August 20.

The certificate has also been signed by Governor Preston Smith, Lieutenant General Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service and Colonel Schwartz.

Industries Could Share Tax Load, Says Rep. Kubiak

Some of Texas industry's tax burden could be passed on to those industries that sell outside of Texas, Rep. Dan Kubiak said in his new column this week.

Other states don't have any hesitations to tax Texas citizens on the products that they send into our state," he said, in telling why he voted against the House tax bill.

Kubiak said that 53 members of the House voted against the bill, which was discarded by the Senate.

"Legislative work is that of compromise," Kubiak said, "and the House leadership would not compromise any on this revenue raising measure. My main objection to the bill was the fact that there were alternatives offered and the leadership would not compromise."

Other items in the House tax bill cited by Kubiak as unsatisfactory were the corporate franchise tax, which loses $80 million annually by not taxing goods sold out of the state; and the increased collection rate for cities.

As an alternative to the proposed sales tax on laundry, dry cleaning and other services, Kubiak said a production tax should be imposed on natural gas since most of the natural gas of this state is sold out of state.

"The gas industry hasn't had a tax increase since 1955 when it was brought about as a temporary measure by Gov. Allan Shivers," he said.

Dog Vaccination Set Saturday Afternoon

Dog owners can get their pets vaccinated on Saturday afternoon between 1 and 3 p.m. in the area in the rear of Cameron Police Station.

"We're going to crack down on dogs running loose without tags," Police Chief Shearin said. He added that any dogs found without a vaccination tag and city tag will be picked up. The City plans to hire a full-time dog catcher, Shearin said.

City tags can be obtained at the same time the dogs are vaccinated on Saturday.

500 Modern Water Systems Spread Through Rural Texas

The age-old problem of scarce and unfit water supply is giving way to the growth of modern, city-type water and sewer systems in small towns and farm areas of Texas.

The opening August 19 of the Madera Valley water system, linking eight small communities in Reeves County south of Pecos, will

Farmers Income Doesn't Keep Up With Food Price

Rising food prices don't necessarily reflect increased income to farmers, Cong. W. R. Poage told a dinner gathering at Waco last week.

Speaking at the dinner sponsored by Central Texas milk producers, Poage said that the consumer now spends only 17 percent of his disposable income in the grocery store in the United States as compared with 25 to 30 percent in Western Europe and 40 to 50 percent in Russia.

Citing wheat as an example, Poage noted that the farmer gets only 3.3 cents per bushel, including government price support payments, for all the wheat used in a loaf of bread that cost 25 cents. Wheat brings the farmer less now than it did 20 years ago, he said. "Right now there is a great deal of talk about the so-called high price of meat," he continued. "I agree that the price of meat—that is, dressed meat in the grocery store, seems high. Last week bringing $1.59 per pound in Washington, but choice steers were bringing no more than 31 cent per pound in Omaha."

Cong. Poage observed that it is vital to have the support of city district Congressmen to get any constructive farm legislation enacted. He said that rural Congressmen therefore would have to support some measures which would be largely beneficial only to city folks.

"In order to get any legislation," he said, "we must have cooperation and compromise."

mark the 500th water system completed in Texas Rural Water Facilities (Poage-Aiken) program.

Development is carried on by local governments and non-profit corporations, who financing through the Federal Farm Administration, a U. S. Department of Agriculture agency. Texas leads the nation in the program, with 500 projects built or approved in the nation to date.

The first system in Texas was located at Golinda, in Falls County south of Waco. Golinda's system supplied 27 homes when originally built in 1959, now serves 70 after 10 years of community growth nourished by the water lines.

The Madera Valley system takes water from a deep well near the Ft. Davis Mountains in Jeff Davis County and distributes it northward to the vicinity of Pecos. A 12-mile pipeline system reaches the communities of Toyahvale, Baragosa, Brogda, Saragosa, Verhalen, Alamo, Hoban, and Valley Farm. Four hundred homes, farms, and other establishments will be served.

The new system ends their dependence on water haulers from points such as Fort and Sulphur—only towns in the area previously equipped with water systems.

The Madera Valley system was built with a $71,000 Farmers Home Administration insured loan to the Madera Valley Water Supply Corporation. With its completion, the advantage of modern water service now has been brought to 25,000 rural Texas people in the past 10 years.

More Production Per Cow Beats Increasing Herd

COLLEGE STATION Consider the possibilities of raising the production level of cows already in the herd rather than adding more cows to the dairy herd, advises a Texas A&M University dairy specialist.

A. M. Meekma, Extension dairy specialist, says computerized reports by the Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA) illustrate this method of raising herd production. Feed costs, he adds, account for roughly half of the cost of production; therefore, income above feed costs provides a good estimate of net profits.

Texas Holstein herds on DHIA test averaged 11,965 pounds of milk per cow in 1963 and had an income over feed cost of $419 per cow. The top 25 producing herds of this breed, he notes, averaged 15,339 pounds of milk for an income over feed cost of $522 per cow. This is in contrast, he adds, with the low 25 herds which averaged 8,654 pounds of milk for an income above feed cost of just over $800 per cow.

Based upon these figures, Meekma says it would take a 172-cow herd of the lower producing kind to provide an income over feed cost to equal a 100-cow herd of the high producing group.

These figures clearly illustrate, he believes, that increasing the production of the cows already in the herd

Schools In Five-County Area Seek Adult Education Program

Funds are being sought for an expanded program of basic adult education to serve a five-county area in Central Texas.

County School Supt. H. D. Maxwell said that if the program receives federal funding it will provide classes in basic adult education for towns in Burleson, Lee, Bell, Milam, and part of Robertson counties.

Title I funds have been approved for the adult education classes taught in Milam County, Maxwell said. These classes have been held for the past three years, and have grown from one class at Branchville, Gause and Maysfield, to include Buckholts, Milano and Rockdale.

"It will be October or possibly November before we know whether the expanded program will receive necessary funds," Supt. Maxwell said.

Schools in the five county area have requested federal funds and the program will depend on the Government's increasing funds for adult basic education.

The adult classes taught in Milam County have consisted of basic education for adults whose education stopped below the high school level. However, Maxwell said some individuals have benefited from high school Equivalency Diploma Tests (EDT) by becoming qualified for jobs requiring a high school diploma.

"We have been able to offer EDT only on an individual basis," he explained, "and are hoping the expanded program will make it possible to have classes to study for the tests."

Maxwell said most companies requiring high school diplomas as a condition for employment will accept applicants who pass the test.

If the expanded program is approved and funded, it will be administered through the Milam County School Office, Supt. Maxwell said. Max McClaren, basic adult education teacher, would serve as coordinator for the program.

Wayne Elley's Pups Win 4th Place In Houston Collie Show

Wayne Louis Elley showed two collie puppies in the South Texas Collie Club Sanctioned Puppy Match held in Houston on Sunday. Both puppies won fourth place.

He showed a male puppy in the two to four month old class. This puppy is from the best known collie males, according to Wayne, including Champion Country Squire, Champion Bold Venture and Champion Lode-Ark's Collectors Item. Wayne has named his puppy Elley's Bold Squire.

Elley's Honey Serenade, one of Wayne's female puppies, won fourth place in the four to six month old class. She is also from champion bloodlines.

He plans to enter the two puppies in a point show as soon as they are six months old. To be named champion they have to show in at least three shows and win a total of 15 points.

5 Report For Draft Physical

Local Board No. 92 forwarded five registrants for preinduction physical examination on Tuesday, August 19.

Reporting for examination were Julian C. Pope, Stephen W. Tucker, II, Eugene J. Van Noord, William Lee Johnson and Arthur T. Peel.

On September 17 the board is scheduled to forward 31 registrants for examination and four men for induction.

By Alva E. Sanders Farm producers who are taking part in the 1969 Feed Grain Program will soon receive their final program payments. Payments cover any unpaid part of the estimated diversion payment and the additional price support to growers who signed up and met the provisions of the program.

Producers on farms participating in the wheat and feed grain programs will not receive payments for either program until compliance has been determined for both programs.

At the time of program sign-up last spring, growers had the opportunity to request that half the estimated diversion payment be made in advance. Farmers taking part in the program are also eligible for loans on their entire 1969 production of corn, grain sorghums and barley.

National average loan rates are $1.05 per bushel for corn, $0.15 cents per bushel ($1.61 per hundredweight) for grain sorghum, and $3 cents per bushel for barley.

Price-support payment rates are the same throughout the Nation: 30 cents per bushel for corn, 29.68 cents per bushel (53 cents per hundredweight) for grain sorghum, and 20 cents per bushel for barley. Per-acre price-support payments can be calculated by multiplying the payment rate by the yield obtained for the farm.

Hutton To Head County Red Cross

George W. Hutton, administrative manager at Alcoa's Rockdale Works, has been named chairman for the coming year of the Milam County Chapter of the American National Red Cross. Hutton of 601 Calhoun, in Rockdale, succeeds Judge O. B. Harden of Cameron as chairman.

H. D. Maxwell, superintendent of Milam County schools and a past chairman of the chapter, will begin his sixth term as treasurer of the Red Cross Chapter.

"I would like to join the residents of Milam County in thanking Judge Harden for his outstanding work with the Red Cross during past years," said Hutton. "Although he is stepping down from the chairman's position, I know he will be a great deal of aid to us during the coming year. We also will welcome anyone in the area who would like to work with the county organization during the 1969-70 term."

Members of the chapter's board of directors will be named at a later date, Hutton said. During the past year the chapter—always a friend to the service men—spent $1,633.48 on services to military families. The second largest expenditure, $1,700.84, was paid to the Red Cross Blood Center in Waco as the chapter's quota toward support of the agency. Local expenses of the bloodmobile program totaled $197.80.

The National Red Cross received $9,083 from the local unit. Additional expenses included $400 for a service worker and $8.00 for safety blankets.

Funds for the chapter were supplied by United Funds in North and South Milam County and drives in surrounding towns.

Lone Star Gas Gets Increase In City Gate Rate

DALLAS

Lone Star Gas Company has announced that the Texas Railroad Commission has rendered a decision and order granting the company a six-cent increase in its intracompany city gate rate.

The order will increase to 41.4 cents per thousand cubic feet the intracompany charge for natural gas delivered at the city gate by the company's Transmission Division to its distribution divisions for sale to residential and commercial customers and for gas unaccounted for in the distribution system.

The old intracompany gate rate of 35.4 cents per thousand cubic feet of natural gas had been in effect since Feb., 1960.

Now that the commission has rendered its decision, Lone Star will evaluate earnings in all Texas cities, towns and communities served by the company. Individual rate action will be pursued in those towns where earnings are inadequate.

Foundation Organized To Care For Old Pleasant Hill Cemetery

A trust fund has been started for maintenance and upkeep of the old Pleasant Hill Cemetery, according to Mrs. Keen Franklin of Rockdale.

A state charter has been issued to the Pleasant Hill Cemetery Foundation, Inc. of Milam County and the Foundation is established with the trust department of Citizens National Bank in Cameron.

Located eleven miles southwest of Rockdale near Alcoa's Rockdale Works, the old cemetery dates back to 1879. Friends and loved ones have met twice each year to clean and beautify the cemetery, which has almost 300 graves in it.

Maintaining the cemetery has become a problem, it was explained, since all but two families have moved from Pleasant Hill. Mrs. Franklin said response in establishing the fund has been very good.

"Memorial gifts in lieu of flowers may be made to the Foundation in care of the bank in Cameron," Mrs. Franklin said. "Contributions, large or small, to the Foundation will be greatly appreciated."

ASCS

The safe operation of a terrace system and its continued protection to cropland depends upon the condition of the terrace outlets.

On most farms it was necessary for the present, or previous, land owner to construct these outlets, in the form of grassed waterways, before protecting the cropland with a terrace system. The construction of waterways with subsequent vegetation and terracing involves a rather large investment in the land.

Just as cars need new tires, houses need repainting and highways need resurfacing; even grassed waterways require maintenance.

Although the sod forming grasses, such as bermuda, are extremely durable, damage to waterways and grass strips does occur. The initial slight damage will accelerate with each rain until extensive work is necessary to repair a serious problem.

A few simple steps of maintenance can assure the protection of your investment and the safe operation of the conservation practices on the land. Continuous attention must be given to keeping a healthy and vigorous growth of grass in waterways by:

(1) Managing their grazing use, (2) Controlling vehicle and equipment traffic, (3) Controlling the plowing of adjacent fields to maintain the required size and capacity, (4) Applying fertilizer annually, and by (5) Preventing the competition of weed growth.

When the heavy rains come and damage does occur, immediate action should be taken to repair the damaged area by smoothing or filling rills, holes and gullies through plowing or hand labor as necessary, spot or local area, sodding of the repaired area with an application of fertilizer to assure a quick regrowth; and using mechanical means of providing temporary protection to the reoccurring "problem spots."

The mechanical means used will vary with need but may include net wire, burlap bags, mulching materials and fencing.

Attention to preventing serious erosion damage and the timely repair of damages which do occur will keep a terrace and waterway system operating for years to come. The maintained system will continue to reduce soil losses and maintain the productivity of the land. If special problems of waterway maintenance arise, discuss them with your local Soil Conservation Service personnel.

County Agent's Notes

Law Controls Herbicide Use

By J. D. Moore

Dates for using hormone-type herbicide in Milam County without restrictions are regulated.

The application of hormone-type herbicides as defoliant may be made without restriction during the period August 25 to November 30 of each year according to herbicide regulations No. 1-E section E, effective date October 20, 1966.

It should be noted however that we do not have a clearance for the use of hormone type of herbicides as defoliant.

FIELD BINDWEED CONTROL

Since 2-4-D applications are the most economical means of controlling the field bindweed several applications may be made after August 25.

The field bindweed is a perennial trailing vine with thick, deep branching root stock. The leaves are alternate, with base square to heart or arrow-shaped. Showy flowers are white or pink, seed pods with four brown seeds.

This very hard-to-kill weed is a threat to cultivated lands. The weed cannot be controlled by plowing. Our farmers should become familiar with this weed.

SWINE MEETING ANNOUNCED

Pork producers are encouraged to attend a meeting to be held in the conference room of the First National Bank in Cameron, August 26 at 8:30 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the current Hog Cholera regulations. Dr. R. M. Titworth and Dr. John Ryan will lead the discussion. Harvey Taeg, chairman of the Centex Pork Producers Association will bring us up to date on this program.

Since swine production is the most profitable farm enterprise in Milam County all producers are urged to attend. Visitors are welcome.

PECAN HARVEST AID

Ethrel, a relatively new chemical, is showing promise as a harvest aid for commercial pecan production. Texas A&M University tests show the chemical speeds up maturity and shuck opening. When sprayed on trees at the rate of 1,000 parts per million, shuck opening occurred within two weeks.

FARMERS SHARE

When the consumer spends a dollar for food at the grocery store, he buys 60 cents worth of products and 40 cents worth of marketing service. These are average figures, points out a recent USDA economist. The farmer's share of America's food dollar is highest for products which require the least amount of processing and packaging.

Mr. and Mrs. Barkley Garner and Brett of Austin were weekend visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Garner.

New Rules For Right-Of-Way, Following Too Closely Are Told

AUSTIN — Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today that effective September 1, laws passed by the Texas Legislature will establish new rules of right-of-way and new rules for following too closely.

The right-of-way law sets out four rules governing the right-of-way at intersections. Speir urged all drivers to review the rules closely, and note the instances in which they must stop, yield and grant the right-of-way.

Drivers of vehicles on a single lane street or roadway consisting of two traffic lanes, upon approaching an intersection not controlled by signs of a divided street or a street or roadway divided into three or more marked lanes, must stop, yield and grant the privilege of right-of-way to vehicles on the larger street. Drivers of vehicles on unpaved streets intersecting a roadway that is paved must stop, yield and grant the right-of-way to vehicles on the paved street.

Drivers of vehicles on streets of equal size and paving must stop, yield and grant the privilege of immediate use of such intersection to any other vehicle which has entered the intersection from such driver's right, or is approaching such intersection from the driver's right in such proximity as to constitute a hazard.

Speir said the act further provides a rule of evidence that in cases of collision, the person shall have been presumed not to have yielded the right-of-way if the four conditions have not been satisfied.

The following too closely law, as amended, will require drivers to maintain an assured clear distance between the vehicle ahead, exercising due regard for the speed of the vehicles and the traffic upon and conditions of the street or highway. Drivers must be able to bring their vehicle to a stop, using these guidelines, without colliding with the preceding vehicle, or veering into other vehicles, objects or persons on or near the street or highway.

State Agency Gets Presidential Award For Export Service

The Texas Industrial Commission received President Nixon's "E" Award August 19 for "a broad and successful program to make manufacturers aware of increased profit potential through exporting."

Robert E. McLellan, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Domestic and International Business, presented the "E" Certificate of Service to Texas Gov. Preston E. Smith at a morning ceremony before a joint session of the legislature at the Texas State Capitol Building in Austin.

The State agency is being honored for a successful export promotion campaign that began with creation of an Office of Export Development in the Texas Industrial Commission in 1965.

The campaign opened with a series of export seminars and, with U. S. Department of Commerce cooperation, expanded to include the first Mobile Trade Fair from the U. S. In a three-year period, Texas exports increased 40 percent.

The "E" Award consists of a citation signed by Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans on behalf of President Nixon, an "E" flag and "E" lapel buttons.

Groesbeck Dealer Is Reinstated By USDA After Providing Bond

Arnold Young, Groesbeck, has been reinstated as a registered livestock dealer under the Packers and Stockyards Act, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said today.

He buys livestock in east-central Texas.

Young's registration was suspended on June 29, 1969, for violating bonding regulations. He has now furnished a bond equivalent meeting requirements of the P&S Act.

USDA Judicial Officer Thomas J. Flavin issued a supplemental order ending the suspension on Aug. 5, 1969. The administrative complaint had been issued by USDA's Packers and Stockyards Administration (P&SA).

P&SA requires livestock dealers to provide bonds as a measure of financial protection to sellers.

A Closer Walk With God Will Lead You Right Straight to Church

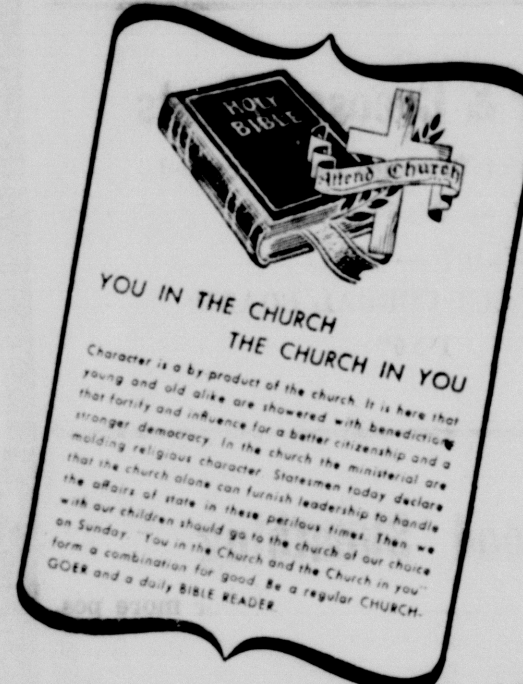

REMEMBER the Sabbath Day to keep it HOLY

IN THE Ten Commandments, which do you suppose gets the larger treatment? Reverent observance of the divine order for a day of rest and of worship gets chief emphasis. A moment's reflection makes the reason clear. The man who does not take time to keep the Sabbath will likely forget to worship the God of his fathers; he who does not reverence God cannot be expected to regard his neighbor and his neighbor's goods. Sabbath observance stands, therefore, at the very center of religion and of morality. Then if you disregard the Sabbath you do it at the peril of your soul!

NOTICE the argument of Moses. God could get His work done in six days, even the creation of a universe and all its creatures. Surely you do not need the seventh day for the lesser tasks of your doing.

YOU are under the command of God; you are a part of His creation; there is nothing more important for you than that you remember God and your relation to Him. The Sabbath is such a time of remembrance. The church bell, the rest from daily toil, the quietness in the busy street, the need of your own soul, unite to remind you of your God and His day. The law giver commanded His people to keep this one day sacred to the Lord; to use it for one's own profit is to rob God of the time which belongs to Him.

HERE is an ancient command, never more important than today. The press of the material and the secular was never more insistent; things want to get in the saddle and ride mankind. Remember the Sabbath; then you will worship God and know that you are the eternal child of the Highest. He who remembers the Sabbath most is most likely to remember to attend his church.

"Oh, Come, Let Us Sing Unto The Lord,"—For There Is No Variableness In God's Cause Nor In His Justice . . . Then Come, Let Us Attend Our Church Or Synagogue This Week . . . This Word Of Invitation From Sponsors Of This Spiritual Values Page.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford
Artificial baits... designed to tempt fish and fishermen... come and go. What is the rage to-day may only be an also ran tomorrow.

Right now the headline grabber for big bass is the plastic worm. A short while ago it was the Rapala and its many imitations. Some lures, like the Heddon Chugger, stand the test of time. This is a great compliment for most baits go through a period when they produce best, then suddenly they lose their appeal to a new-come.

One reason, no doubt, is that fish become conditioned to certain baits. When the lure is something new, bass are uninhibited. They strike like crazy! But the more they see of the bait, the less inclined they are to hit it. That is, unless the fisherman catches the bass in one of those moods when they'll hit most anything.

We once read of a unique test made in a fish hatchery. One lure of only one color was used. On the first day the bass struck the lure as if there would be no second chance for a meal. On the second day its appeal was almost as good.

Senate Tax Bill

'Too Selective'

Says Sen. Watson

State Sen. Murray Watson said he did not vote for the Senate-passed tax bill because he felt "it was too selective and not broad enough."

The bill provides for an increase of one-fourth percent in the state sales tax and places under the sales tax alcoholic beverages and interstate telephone and telegraph service.

The bill also would change the method of determining the taxable capital under the franchise tax to include as a factor 25 percent of out-of-state sales; and would impose a documentary stamp tax at the rate of 55 cents for each $300 value on deeds, instruments or writings transferring land.

Watson said he felt the stamp tax to be a transaction tax and that it placed an additional burden on "our already overtaxed real estate."

If the conference committee appointed to write the final tax bill finishes before the special session's August 26 deadline Watson said Governor Preston Smith will probably open the session to matters other than taxes.

"Should he do this," Watson, "I shall introduce again my bill to create 27 district courts throughout Texas. The court bill was approved by the Senate and House but was vetoed by the governor along with some 35 other bills which he received too late for approval."
